EVOLUTION MARTIAL ARTS

THE REVOLUTION #38 – OCTOBER 2010

Trick-or-Treaters	Parents	Homeowners
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Carry a flashlight, and wear a watch • Walk, don't run and stay on Sidewalks • If no sidewalks stay on left side of road • Obey traffic signals • Stay in familiar neighbourhoods • Don't cut across yards or driveways • Make sure costumes and shoes fit • Avoid wearing masks while walking from house to house • Carry only flexible knives, swords or other props • Wear clothing with reflective markings or tape • Approach only houses that are lit • Stay away from and don't pet animals you don't know 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make your child eat dinner before setting out • Children should carry quarters so they can call home • Ideally, young children of any age should be accompanied by an adult • If your children go on their own, be sure they wear a watch, preferable one that can be read in the dark • If you buy a costume, look for one made of flame-retardant material • Older children should know where to reach you and when to be home • Know where they are going and who they are with • Although tampering is rare, always check the candy before they eat any 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make sure your yard is clear of such things as ladders, hoses, and flower pots that can trip the young ones • Pets get frightened on Halloween. Put them in to protect them from cars or inadvertently biting someone • Battery powered jack o'lantern candles are preferable to a real flame • If you do use candles, place the pumpkin well away from where trick-or-treaters will be walking or standing • Non-food treats: plastic rings, pencils, stickers, erasers, coins
